australian institute of
food science & technology

AIFST AWARD NOMINATION FORM

2019 MALCOLM BIRD AWARD

All papers nominated for this award must be individually authored papers. Nominees must be AIFST members who are under 30 years of age as of the 30 June 2019 and have been a member for a minimum of 12 months prior to the closing date for this award. Nominations must also be accompanied by a current Curriculum Vitae (CV). Please review the Award Guidelines as part of the nomination to ensure eligibility criteria are met.

Nominations close 5.00pm Sunday 28 April 2019

Nominee

Name: _____

Email: _____

Phone No: _____

Mobile: _____

Paper Name: _____

Abstract pertaining to individual research, critical review or area of interest in aspects of Food Science & Technology (max 1000 words)

_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____
_____

11 Julius Ave, North Ryde, NSW, 2113
P| 0447 066 324 E| aifst@aifst.com.au W| aifst.asn.au

australian institute of
food science & technology

11 Julius Ave, North Ryde, NSW, 2113
P| 0447 066 324 E| aifst@aifst.com.au W| aifst.asn.au

australian institute of
food science & technology

Statement by peer or department head indicating how the nominee has demonstrated academic excellence, leadership and integrity. (max 200 words)

Statement from a supervisor of the nominee to the effect that the paper is an individual effort.

11 Julius Ave, North Ryde, NSW, 2113
P| 0447 066 324 E| aifst@aifst.com.au W| aifst.asn.au